FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: LYNCHBURG PARKS AND RECREATION HOSTS KUBB TOURNAMENT

LYNCHBURG, Va. – Kubb, a backyard game originating in Scandinavia and also known as “Viking chess,” comes to the city of Lynchburg for the first ever tournament at Peakview Park, Saturday, October 13. Games start at 10:00am and will go until a winner is determined.

Kubb (pronounced koob) is a trending backyard lawn game that involves throwing wooden dowels to knock down the opponents wooden blocks and eventually knocking down the king. While kubb is an easy game to learn, chess-like strategy and skill can enhance the competition.

Kubb is a game for all, and this tournament is open to all ages, skill levels, and experience. Players must register as a team, with a minimum of three players and a maximum of six. Game play is in compliance with the US National Kubb Championship rules. Family and friends are encouraged to bring a lawn chair and cheer on their team.

There is a $30.00 team fee to register. The designated team captain needs to register their team of 3–6 players on or before October 10, 2018. Learn more information or register online at www.lynchburgparksandrec.com or in person at Miller Center, 301 Grove St., Monday–Friday any time from 8:30am–5:00pm.

Learn more about this event by visiting Lynchburg Parks and Rec Kubb Tournament or call (434)455-5858.
